Job Description: Psychotherapist

The Therapy Collective is a community of psychotherapists who approach mental health from a holistic perspective and integrate various therapeutic approaches when appropriate. Through safe, compassionate and supportive therapeutic relationships, our clinicians collaborate with clients to create trust and curiosity about the challenges they face, honoring the capacity for self empowerment, self-care, and self advocacy. Our therapists have a wide spectrum of specialties and perspectives, ensuring an engaged network of knowledge, resources, and support within our clinical team. We value learning growth and community, and hold weekly group and individual supervision as well as professional development and collaborative learning opportunities to enhance integrative practice.

The Therapy Collective is committed to diversity and strives for inclusivity, equality, equity, and alignment with our integrative relational vision and model. Toward this end, we understand that a diverse team includes representing and celebrating differences across race, gender, sexuality, ethnicity, national origin, class, religion, and political orientation.

TTC seeks a licensed masters social worker to provide remote virtual integrative therapy and treatment for individuals and couples. Complete your application here: <https://forms.gle/S6NBpGRoVZmXFmE56>

As a Psychotherapist at The Therapy Collective, you will:

- Work within an integrative model to provide care that facilitates optimal health and healing
- Utilize a diverse community to learn, connect, develop, and share resources in support of excellent client care and a healthy integrative community
- Maintain a simple current electronic medical record system to manage, schedule, and maintain communications related to your own caseload (approximately 21 - 25 clients)

As a Psychotherapist at The Therapy Collective, you must have:

- A license to work in the State of New York as a licensed masters social worker
- Access to appropriate remote work conditions
- Availability for 25+ hours of work per week; including two evenings a week or one weekend day
- Experience doing intakes, assessing clients' needs, diagnosing, and developing treatment plans

Review our TTC Offerings and Expectations document to learn more about The Therapy Collective's vision for a therapeutic community.

At The Therapy Collective, we hire therapists who will be vital participants in the growth and development of our integrative community. Even if you don't think you can check off every bullet point on this list, we still encourage you to apply. We value both current experience with and future potential for:

- A commitment to excellence in clinical practice with experience in mind-body practices
- Demonstrated experience working with a broad range of client needs, including anxiety, depression, trauma, OCD, and couples work
- Experience using CBT, EFT, LGBTQ+ affirming therapies.
- Speciality practice and/or 'niche' client community
- The ability to conduct psychotherapy sessions in another language that enhances access to mental health services for New York residents
- A commitment to developing and sharing resources to support an integrative practice community
- The ability to represent TTC in various formats including social media, writing, podcasts, and presentations for community-based and academic institutions

Employees are paid on a fee for service basis, $40 - $45 commensurate with experience and client caseload.

We are looking for someone who is available to start building a caseload as soon as possible.
